

LPC CLASSIFIED SENATE

President's Report to the Board – AUGUST 17, 2010

The LPC Classified Professional participated in the following activities and provided several services to the College since July 20th:

- ❖ The Classified Senate President is invited to sit in 7 meetings each month. Each of our LPC Senate Board members have volunteered to attend some of these meetings for me this year. This is both to nurture new leadership for the coming years and to give the President (me) a break occasionally. Kudos to Natasha Lang for thinking of this idea.
- ❖ Many Classified Staff have volunteered in the Student Services' Welcome Center – a one-stop student services center, in Bldg. 1600, for students to get counseling, get registered, and handle their money transactions.
- ❖ We also volunteered at the new student orientation, called EXPO, on August 11th, which oriented about 500 new students!
- ❖ We planned a BBQ fund-raiser for the whole campus on College Day, August 17th. We earned about $250 for our charitable causes, such as student bookstore scholarships [gift certificates].
- ❖ Volunteered to provide coffee service for the faculty for their required Division Day afternoon workshops – “You Go, Coffee Crew!” - Jeff Sperry and Sharon VanNoy.
- ❖ We will welcome our Interim President, Dr. Guy Lease, to our first full meeting of the year on August 26th.
- ❖ Classified Professionals in their regular jobs are quite instrumental in the success of these, and many other programs.
